SUMMARY OF INFORMATION

The target continues rotating, it cannot always be seen, it absorbs energy as it moves. When I look for it I can find it -- so can anyone else!. It frequents this planet although it did not originate here. There is not any life on it. MFO Confusion w/ UFO / info gather

The purpose of this object is to gather information. It is like a sponge. It gathers information of every kind in a way that I cannot explain. When I am next to it I feel vibration -- the hair on my arms stands up and the fluid of my body vibrates quickly and steadily. When I am on the inside of the object (in the center of the hollow spot) I cannot breath, I have the AI of suffocation and pressure.

I followed the object as it made several passes around the planet -- it just kept absorbing. When it was done, it moved away slowly did not return.

This thing comes from another place. It is here in place of someone else. Again it's purpose is to gather and report. Self sufficient, simple and very accurate! Programmed -- no mind of it's own.
